COMPOUNDING AND CREDITING

Dividends will be compounded monthly and credited monthly. For this account type the dividend period is monthly, for example the beginning date of the first dividend period of the calendar year is January 1 and the ending date of such dividend period is January 31. All other dividend periods follow this same pattern of dates. The dividend declaration date follows the ending date of a dividend period, and for the example above is February 1. If you close your account or fall below the minimum daily balance requirement during the month, before dividends are credited, you will not receive accrued dividends.

MINIMUM BALANCE REQUIREMENTS

Minimum balance requirements for an account to earn dividends, if applicable, are listed below with other account specifics. Accounts that require a minimum balance will not be credited for accrued dividends during any dividend period during which the account falls below the required minimum balance.

- a. Share Accounts do not have specific minimum balance requirements. The par value membership share however is normally held reserved in a share account. See Par Value Shares and Dividend Period below for specifics.
- b. Share Club Accounts do not have specific minimum balance requirements although some clubs may require specific opening balances (i.e. Holiday Club, etc.) If such requirements exist they will be noted in an account specific Truth In Savings disclosure.
- c. Money Market Accounts are tiered accounts. If your money market account has the minimum balance to earn the tiered rate as stated above you will be paid that rate and APY on the entire balance in your money market account. A minimum balance is required for our standard money market accounts.
- d. Checking (Share Draft) Accounts generally do not have minimum balance requirements. Should a specific checking account product have such requirements it will be addressed separately (i.e. Premier Checking, etc.) within this section.
- e. Premier Checking Accounts are stepped accounts. Your premier checking account will pay the rate stated above on the amount of the total deposit in each step (i.e. A premier checking account with a total deposit of $66,000 would be paid the step (tier) 1 rate on the first $10,000, the step 2 rate on the next $40,000 ($50,000 – $10,000) and the step 3 rate on the remaining $16,000. Note: The actual earned APY for stepped accounts is shown as a range for tiers other than tier 1 because the actual APY is dependent on the total balance in each tier.
- f. 2nd Chance Checking Accounts designed to provide a second chance to members who have had problems with their checking accounts in the past while limiting some of the features associated with our traditional checking products that could increase our risk in offering the product. Requires a minimum opening balance of $50.00 which may not be used to meet the par value share requirement for membership. No overdraft protection is offered on this account, debit card access is based on management discretion.

BALANCE COMPUTATION METHOD

Dividends are calculated by the daily balance method which applies a periodic rate to the daily balance in the account for the period. Failure to maintain the minimum required daily balance during the dividend period will result in the loss of accrued dividends for the period.

ACCRUAL OF DIVIDENDS

Dividends will begin to accrue no later than the business day we receive provisional credit for placement of non-cash items (e.g. checks) to your account.

CERTIFICATE EARLY WITHDRAWAL PENALTIES

We may impose a penalty if you withdraw any of the principal before the maturity date.

AMOUNT OF PENALTY – For all Share Certificate and IRA Share Certificate account with terms of one (1) year or less, the amount of the early withdrawal penalty for your account(s) is the equivalent of 90 days dividends. - c. Where the account is an IRA (Individual Retirement Account) and any paid within seven (7) days after establishment; or where the account is a KEOUGH Plan, provided that the depositor forfeits an amount equal to the simple dividends earned on the amount withdrawn; or where the account is an IRA or KEOUGH and the owner attains the age of 59 ½ or becomes disabled

IRA SHARE CERTIFICATE WITHDRAWALS – Standard early withdrawal penalties apply. Withdrawals of either principal or dividends on IRA accounts may result in other penalties and you should consult your accountant or tax advisor concerning applicability.
